Excerpt: .rescue of their happy and glorious constitution. One of those papers is from Topsfield signed by Captain Samuel Smith, Captain John Boardman and Deacon John Gkmld, a committee chosen by the town to forward their answer. We honor and revere the men of the Revolution for their bravery in the hour of battle, but their courage dates back to the principles which inspired them, the preparation for the coming event. The collected wisdom and fortitude of the people, as expressed through these papers from the different towns, inspired them with courage for the coming confiict. It laid the foundation of the first government of the people on the earth, created by the people and for the people. It was sealed in the blood of the immortal Warren. Surrounding that great spirit are gathered a great multitude who have given their lives to defend the government that the Nation might live and not perish from the earth. As we dedicate this evening to the memory of our patriot fathers, it is fitting that we renew our vows of fidelity to the principles for which they gave their last, full measure of devotion.
