Reuben s odyssey reveals the power of the gifts he brings to others, setting the stage for future experiences and innovations in volunteerism. We meet a rich cast of characters who are touched by Reuben s journey, a journey which ultimately creates extraordinary opportunities for many, and profoundly enriches the lives of countless others. Gary Solomonson Gary s early years were lived passionately in a small farming community in Minnesota s southwestern rolling prairie with its patchwork of meadows, lakes, rivers, marshlands, fields and grove-sized wooded areas surrounding small towns and family farms. It is this environment and its inhabitants which Gary brings vividly to life in The Yellow Barn Trilogy. Gary enjoyed volunteering from a very early age, especially in school, church, scouts, and regularly visiting seniors in their homes, nursing homes...
