Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Translations: Forms of Ceremonial, on the Death of the Dowager Queen, and of the Emperor Taoukwong; Also an Account of the Celebrated Porcelain Tower of Nanking The following Translations of Edicts and Announcements, consequent upon the death of the Dowager Queen, and of the Emperor Taoukwong, who died only one month and two days afterwards, will, the Translator hopes, afford amusement to some of his friends, and exhibit a few of the customs of this peculiar people. When quartered at Nanking, in 1842, he visited the Porcelain Tower, and obtained from a Priest of the Temple a colored drawing of the edifice, with an historical account attached to it. A translation of this may not prove altogether uninteresting. The wonders spoken of in the account, and which all Chinese give implicit credence to, the Translator did not see, perhaps such beauties were hidden by the presiding divinity of the Temple from the eyes of English barbarians.
